Dear Community Member,

Building upon the exciting momentum from our last dialogue, the Manhattan Committee on Conversations on Race Reconciliation is pleased to host our second dialogue:

Conversations on Race and Reconciliation: A Community Dialogue
Monday, October 30, 2017 7:00 pm- 9:30 pm
St. Thomas More Catholic Church, Utopia Gymnasium
2900 Kimball Ave, Manhattan, Kansas

The dialogue will focus on discussing community perspectives regarding the status of race relations in Manhattan. The program format will be an open public forum; including a diverse, community panel, small group discussion, and a social networking component. We are expecting 150 -175 people to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Invited panel members

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| • Laverne Bitsie-Baldwin | Co-Chair, KSU Indigenous Alliance |
| • Mirta Chavez | KSU, Director of Multicultural Programs & Services |
| • John Exdell | Chair, Manhattan Alliance for Peace & Justice |
| • Susanne Glymour | Director, Manhattan Non-Violence Initiative |
| • Ryan Kelly | K-State Student Government Association Senator |
| • Richard Pitts | Director, Wonder Workshop |

We are excited to have a dynamic and diverse group of small group facilitators joining us for this event.

We have attached a flyer advertising this event. We encourage you to share this information with others and check out our Facebook page, Manhattan Conversations on Race Reconciliation.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Dr. Juanita McGowan (chairperson and dialogue facilitator), juanitamcgowan6@gmail.com or 785-341-7114 or any committee member. Thanks again for your support.

We are looking forward to joining hands with you to continue the process of developing unity, peace and understanding.
